Dear Henri and Emily -

How can I ever put into words the joy which you two wonderful people gave me last Tuesday evening a week ago? You delighted my soul! If it weren't for you, my dearest friends, my life would be bleak indeed.

Emi, everything was superb. You are such a magical hostess! You give everyone so much happiness.

Henri, you made up for a vast empty stretch in my life. The Mendelssohn, The Brahms, and (I thought I heard you ^{say} Escher Tranch were a series of heavenly delights. I wish you could tell that lovely lady pianist, not to mention the cellist and the ~~the~~ gentleman pianist, and of course Nina how deeply grateful I am for their playing. And Nina is so beautiful, so mature - what a change!

How is it possible for you to go on, Henri, for all these years, simply becoming better and better?

Your gifts to me can never be repaid - Please accept my very deep and abiding Thankfulness -

Please tell your marvellous children and spouses how happy I am for them all -

You have so many fascinating friends - they add so much to my pleasure -

Thank you - Thank you - Thank you
